

HES Extension Activity Award
School of Human Environmental Sciences
College of Agriculture, Food and Environment

Purpose:

The purpose of the HES Extension Activity Award is to support the integration of extension, research, and teaching in the School of Human Environmental Sciences. The focus will be to support faculty and staff who do not have extension appointments to initiate research and teaching activities that support Family and Consumer Sciences (FCS) Extension.

Awards will be made to groups of faculty, staff, FCS agents, and students that contribute to:

- building and/or enhancing the FCS Extension Strategic Plan and Initiatives
- providing FCS Extension experiences for HES students, faculty, and or staff
- contributing to family, community, social, and or economic development for Kentuckians

Eligibility:

Application is open to HES faculty and staff. Applications must include involvement of FCS agents in the planning, implementation, and evaluation of the project. Once the project is complete, a final report should be submitted to the Director of the School of Human Environmental Sciences, Assistant Director for Family and Consumer Sciences Extension.

Excluded Uses:

- Faculty, Staff, and Agent Salary (with the exception of 9 month faculty working in the summer)
- Instructional Costs
- Office Supplies
- Computers and Other Equipment

Due Dates:

Review of application will begin the third Friday of each semester and continue throughout the year. Applications are accepted anytime. Completed EAA applications should be submitted to Dr. Cherry Kay Smith. Funding must be spent before the end of the federal fiscal year on September 30.
