School of Human Environmental Sciences College of Agriculture, Food and Environment University of Kentucky

Alice P. Killpatrick Fellowship Application

The Alice P. Killpatrick Fellowship is awarded to graduate students who are enrolled full-time in the School of Human Environmental Sciences. The student recipient(s) should have:

- Potential for academic and professional excellence;
- Maintained good academic standing;
- Possess citizenship and leadership qualities;
- Participated in community-based activities; and
- Demonstrated financial need.

Preference will be given to students who have completed at least two semesters of a college level foreign language or have documentation of achieving the equivalent of two semesters of foreign language study.

Fellowship Stipends

The Killpatrick Fellowship provides a stipend of $2,500 per semester. Renewal of the fellowship is possible for up to three additional semesters, but the renewal application must be submitted each semester and renewal is not guaranteed.

Applications are accepted on an ongoing basis. To be considered for Spring semester awards, graduate students need to obtain the signature of the department chair for endorsement.

*Please note the submission process has slightly changed this year to improve the application process. Each application must be submitted to your department chair for endorsement, upon which the applicant should upload the endorsed application onto RedCap, an online database, no later than January 23, 2020.
